Working Together to Improve the Community

Trees Asheboro and the Senior/Youth Community Garden is bringing joy and new life to Asheboro's East Side neighborhood thanks to a generous grant from the Randolph Hospital Community Health Foundation.

Located on the grounds of the historic former Rosenwald School that now serves as housing for low-income senior citizens, the garden is the scene of lively activity as various vegetables are tended by local seniors and youth. Trees Asheboro volunteer and Master Gardener, Deb Andrews conducts a weekly program at the garden educating participants about healthy eating and preparation of meals.

Founded in 1995, the Randolph Hospital Community Health Foundation uses the interest from contributions to award health and wellness grants to the Randolph County community. Contributions to the Foundation have been a valuable part of the Foundation's ability to award over a half a million dollars to the community.
